

Culturally and Linguistically Responsive Practices for
Emerging Multilingual Students with Disabilities

MARIA R. BREA-SPAHN, PH.D., CCC-SLP
mrb17@nyu.edu

PADLET

INFOGRAPHIC

JOURNEY 1

Multilingualism, Cultural Diversity, and Disability: Debunking Myths and Paving New Paths

Reflect on your identity markers and positionalities

Identity Markers Are you or have you ever been:

Identity Markers

- Ability
- Religion
- Nationality
- Citizenship
- Ethnicity
- Race/racialized
- Sexual Identity
- Gender Identity
- Occupation
- Age
- Marital Status
- Geographic area (rural, urban)

Are you or have you ever been?

- Monolingual or bilingual/ multilingual
- In the military
- Wealthy
- Poor
- In prison
- In the middle class
- In the working class
- A refugee
- A teacher,
- A speech-language therapist
- A student
- A parent or caregiver
- Add your own...

How am I positioned to learn about myths and perceptions of disability and multilingualism?

For example:

This/these identities _____ allow/s me to (think, feel, understand)

_____ (e.g., feel open, be anxious, be excited about...understand, be more critical) because _____.

Reflection 2 - Language as belonging

- Jargon
- Other languages
- Phrases

Reflection 3 -4 - Ideologies

Reflection 6-7 - Lessons Learned

Culturally (and Linguistically)
Responsive and Sustaining Inclusive Instruction

Reflective

Inclusive

Intersectional

Justice Centered

Culturally and Linguistically Responsive Practices for
Emerging Multilingual Students with Disabilities

MARIA R. BREA-SPAHN, PH.D., CCC-SLP

PADLET

JOURNEY 2

CLRPs: Bridging Home and Educational Contexts

What is culture to me?

Draw it or define it

The funds of knowledge definition of culture is similar or different from mine? How?

To what extent am I incorporating students' funds of knowledge?

Video 1 - What strategies did you notice were used by mom?

Video 2 - How is this type of coaching different from other types of coaching you've seen? What's the role of the SLP in this session? What did you notice about what she did with the mother?

Culturally and Linguistically Responsive Practices for
Emerging Multilingual Students with Disabilities

MARIA R. BREA-SPAHN, PH.D., CCC-SLP

PADLET

UDL

INFOGRAPHIC

CRP BOOKS

POSITIONALITY INFOGRAPHIC

JOURNEY 3

Literacy for all: CLRPs

What do I need to provide literacy instruction to disabled bilingual and multilingual students?

Try out the positionality infographic with the videos.

Video 1 - What do you notice about the positionality of the author and what are your reactions?

Video 2 - What do you notice about the positionality of the author and what are your reactions?

What took you to your next growth edge or learning zone?

